4. ServAce acting as Agent

ServAce acts purely as an agent with regards to the booking and is only responsible for the use of the System by the customer and the processing of the payment. All other financial liability rests with the customer.

5. Withdrawal of Payment Solution

5.1 Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies which the ServAce may have, ServAce reserves the rights at anytime to withdraw the payment facility upon giving notice to you if:-

- (a) the Customer terminates the Contract [or requests that the payment facility is removed.]
- (b) the Customer commits a material breach of the Contract; or
- (c) an order is made or a resolution is passed for the winding up of the Client, or circumstances arise which entitle a court of competent jurisdiction to make a winding up order of the Client.

6. Force Majeure

ServAce shall have no liability to the Client under this Contract if it is prevented from or delayed in providing the Payment Services by acts, events, omissions or accidents beyond its reasonable control, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes, failure of a utility service or transport network, act of God, war, riot, civil commotion, malicious damage, compliance with any law or governmental order, rule, regulation or direction, accident, breakdown of plant or machinery, fire, flood, storm or default of suppliers or subcontractors.

7. System Issues

7.1 ServAce shall have no liability to the Client under this Contract if it is prevented from or delayed in providing the Payment Services by issues experienced with System or by the Third-Party Payment solution.

7.2 Whilst we aim to provide continuous access to the Services unfortunately, given the nature of the Services, we cannot guarantee that they will be uninterrupted or error free.

7.3. Wherever possible, we will provide advance warning (for example, on our website) of any known or planned interruptions and we will try to ensure any interruption is kept as brief as possible.

7.4 If circumstances happen beyond our reasonable control, we will not be liable for any failure to perform our obligations under this Agreement because of those circumstances, and we will be excused from that failure for so long as those circumstances continue.

Interruptions caused by factors outside our control may include: failure of our or your internet service provider, a distributed denial of service attack (where hackers overload networks with data in an effort to disable them).

8. PCI DSS & Data Protection

8.1 The Stripe Payment Portal is Level 1 PCI DSS compliant, which sets out the industry standards for maintaining a secure environment.

8.2 All data shared in order to make a booking via the System shall be held in line with the requirements of data protection legislation in effect, at the time of booking.

9. Severance

9.1 If any provision of this Contract is found by any court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, unenforceable, or illegal, the other provisions will remain in force.

9.2 If any invalid, unenforceable or illegal provision would be valid, enforceable, or legal if some part of it were deleted, that provision will apply with whatever modification is necessary to make it valid, enforceable, and legal.

10. Governing law and jurisdiction

10.1 The Contract and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter, shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of England and Wales.

10.2 The parties irrevocably agree that the Courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim that arises out of it or in connection with the Contract or its subject matter.

11. VAT

VAT will be charged where applicable at the rate in force on the date of supply.
